VII. Please comment on SWOC Analysis:

Strength:

Flexibility: A student can choose three electives/ two electives with one honours subject from a total of four honours and six elective subjects offered in humanities. Science students can choose any one honours out of three offered. Within a space of few years the college has expanded its programmes and courses from five elective subjects in 2012 to eight electives and seven honours courses in 2018. Location-advantage: The College is located in the midst of natural beauty situated on the outskirts of Agartala Shimna Road in Mohanpur Sub-division under the West District. It is away from the hustle and bustle of the daily traffic and is situated in the serene atmosphere providing a tranquil and peaceful environment for study. Increasing performance of students: The College being rural Creating a Human Resource of skillful and students: The College has a force of dedicated teachers with excellent profile for imparting quality education. The teachers are committed towards continuous development and up gradation of students. The teachers keep track of major and recent developments in the academic field and share the knowledge, expertise and experience with the students. Harmony among faculty, staff, students, administration & alumni: The college administration shares a harmonious relation with faculty, staff and students. The college gets active support from the National Service Scheme (NSS) and National Cadet Corps (NCC). Institutional Weakness, Shortage of permanent faculty, lab-attendant.

Weakness:

Shortage of permanent faculty, lab-attendant & non-teaching staff needs to be addressed. Student & Computer ratio needs to be improved. Hostel facility for SC, ST or Visually Challenged (Divyang) students needs to be built. The College being situated near the international border suffers from limited internet connectivity.

Opportunities:

Introduction of new streams like Physical sciences and Commerce etc. The college has resources to introduce the Post Graduate programme in its curriculum. Promoting collaboration with various Government and non-government organization is another major opportunity for the college Making green and zero carbon footprint campus

Challenges:

Most of the students are first-generation learners. The college faces a huge challenge in uplifting students. The student-teacher ratio is a major challenge. The recruitment of full time teachers' don't lie with the college authority. Student dropout before the completion of Graduation Poor attendance owing to low socioeconomic status, rural backdrop, health issues financial constraints Infrastructural deficit

Best Practice (s) / Innovations of the Department:

The institution runs through decentralization, delegation of powers and supportive attitude. The motto of college has stood firm to its value of quality of education. The question of access to poor students, equality, social justice and empowerment of rural youths has been the core of the institutional values of the college. Besides these, the college is conscious in maintaining a green, plastic free and eco-friendly environment in the campus. The NCC and NSS always play an active role for gardening and cleaning of the campus. The college has a stated code of ethics which has been put up in the college website. The faculty, staff and students of the college are required to follow the ethics rigorously.

Tree Biodiversity Assessment 2019-20: An initiative towards the assessment of tree biodiversity of campus was taken up by the Department of Botany with the final year students. In the study 883 trees from 41 different species belonging to 26 Families were recorded. The database of the tree biodiversity is available in the college website for the benefit of students.
