SVM Campus Bazar evoke huge response

■ NEC Report

Agartala, Jun 6: Swami Vivekananda Mahavidyalaya, Mohampur, organized its first edition of the 'Campus Bazaar' on 6th June, 2023 - a platform created to encourage students to use marketing and business strategies. The objective behind the event was to hone the entrepreneurial skills as well as to explore the marketing & management competencies of future entrepreneurs of the college. The day-long event, organized by the Department of NCC, was inaugurated by Prof. A. Kanganath, Registrar, ICFAI University, Tripura. A total of nineteen stalls were allotted to the budding entrepreneurs - 2 stalls for Alumni Association, 3 stalls to the NCC Unit and 14 stalls to various departments of the college. The Campus Bazaar, true to its name, featured a potpourri of products - handmade DRY items, paintings, tailored clothing, handmade jewellery, farm fresh fruits and vegetables and a number of mouth-watering local delicacies of the state - all prepared and coordinated by the students and Alumni members of the college. During an interactive session with the Registrar, ICFAI University, and the Principal of the college, these young generation entrepreneurs not only exhibited their products but also thoroughly explained the details of the product. Through this Campus Bazaar initiative, the participants learnt the skills of teamwork, planning & coordination, marketing strategies and profit sharing. Interestingly, products worth Rs. 150000/- were sold in the day-long event.
