Poison in pond death of fishes

■ NEC Report

Udaipur, Mar 15: A group of miscreants applied poison in the pond of one Bhanu Chandra Dey, a resident of ward number 2 of Chandrapur Indiranagar Gram Panchayat under Matabari block in Udaipur. Due to this water poisoning of the pond a huge number of big size fishes, weighing from 60 to 70 kg, were floated on the water surface. The species of these dead fishes are like Rohita, Carfu, Brigade, Grass Carp etc.

It was learnt that as the pond owner Bhanu Chandra Dey visited the pond to give the feed to the fishes, he became perplexed noticing that most of the fishes were floating on the water surface on Friday morning. Lamenting over the matter, the victim is now searching for the way to recover the huge loss.

Best institution award for SVM, Mohanpur

■ NEC Report

Agartala, Mar 15: The fundamental values of the National Cadet Corps (NCC) include being a responsive, learning and continuously evolving organization. Cadets are trained to become hard-working and self-disciplined individuals with the objective of providing service to the society.

The NCC Wing of Swami Vivekananda Mahavidyalaya, Mohanpur, Tripura, has truly imbibed these values and demonstrated their true commitment to these ideals with a number of accomplishments, the latest being the "Best Institution" of 13 Tripura Bn NCC, Agartala, awarded by the NCC DTE North Eastern Region, Guwahati.

The event was held at Brahmputra Hall at Narangi Cantonment, Guwahati, Assam, on 14th March, 2024 and was attended by Dr. Prasanta Deb, ANO, SVM, Mo-hampur, along with one NCC cadet Reshmi Datta. It is a matter of great pride that SVM, Mohanpur was awarded the "Best Institution" with DG Banner. It is noteworthy that NCC Cadets of the college proactively participate in and organize a number of awareness programs on hazards of plastic, cleanliness drives, plantation drives, health camp and many more. Under the able leadership of ANO, Dr. Prasanta Deb, the NCC unit of SVM continues to grow by leaps and bounds.

Jagadish inaugurates Saida Taisa Sub-Zonal

■ NEC Report

Agartala, Mar 15: A new Saida Taisa Sub-zonal office comprising the 8 village committee was inaugurated by the Chairman of TTAADC Jagadish Debbarma on 15th March at Dashram Bari by lighting pious lamps. During his inaugural speech he said that TTAADC was founded 40 years back and today the dreams of the residents became true. Red shield Division observed a day with the Soldiers

■ NEC Report

Agartala, Mar 15: Red shield Division under the aegis of HQ Eastern Command carried out an outreach programme under the theme of "Nation Building: A Day with the Soldiers" to reach out to the less privileged children of local orphanage home to give them an insight of life in Army and motivate them to choose armed forces as a career choice. The event also aligned itself with the "Join Indian Army" Campaign of the Govt of India. A total of 30 children attended the same including 10 girls.

The event started with a medical check-up of the children in which the doctors from the Military hospital carried out medical check up of the children and provided them-basic medicines and vitamins, followed by a motivational lecture on "Join Indian Army" which gave them an insight about the various opportunities available with them to make a career in the Armed Forces.

In order to understand the life of a soldier, A visit to Unit's SarvDharmSthal, Living Barracks and cook house was also conducted. The children also interacted with the gunners who took part in the Kargil War who narrated them about their experience of the war. The event concluded by gift distribution and lunch with the soldiers.

The children were very excited about the event and thanked the Armed Forces for organising the event which provided them opportunity to interact with the soldiers and gave a first-hand experience of Army life.
